

HOKKAIDO FAMILY TRIP

Hokkaido is a “Treasure Island,” a place of adventure, throughout the year. Hokkaido is blessed with rich and abundant nature featuring the sea, lakes, rivers, mountains, forests and starry skies, every season being very distinct and special. Here together with family, you can enjoy plenty of outdoor experiences and cooking experience with fresh dairy products, local vegetables and seafood as well as so many other fun activities; in other words, Hokkaido is a “treasure island” full of treasured fun! During the summer parents and children can cooperate together and enjoy rafting, canoeing, fishing and canyoning along rivers and the ocean. While in the mountains you can enjoy camping, hiking and horseback riding. You can also have fun of harvesting and tasting fresh fruits and vegetables right on the spot! During winter Hokkaido attracts so many visitors for its powder snow. Niseko, Furano, Rusutsu, and Tomamu are just a few examples of some of the finest ski resorts in Hokkaido. The whole family can enjoy fun in Hokkaido with skiing, snowboarding, snow rafting, banana boat rides in the snow and much more.
